LITTLE KUNOICHI THE NINJA GIRL

Sanae Ishida

Popular blogger Sanae Ishida's first children's book is about a young ninja girl in training. Illustrations with an origami and paper-collage feel make this girl empowering book truly beautiful and inspiring.

Little Kunoichi, a young ninja in training, is frustrated. Inspired by tiny Chibi Samurai's practice and skills, she works harder than ever and makes a friend. Together, they show the power of perseverance, hard work, and cooperation when they wow the crowd at the Island Festival. Ninja skills don't come easily to Little Kunoichi. She needs determination—and a special friend—to unleash her power!

SANAE ISHIDA grew up drawing princesses, reading Japanese comic books, and writing stories she never shared with anyone. She enjoyed stints in wide-ranging fields, including illustration, education, technology, retail, and theater arts. When not creating on the page, she designs children's clothing, and overly shares stories on her website. She lives in Seattle with her husband and daughter.

MY WILDERNESS

An Alaskan Adventure

Claudia McGehee

In 1918, painter Rockwell Kent took his nine-year-old son to spend a winter on Alaska's Fox Island. This beautiful children's book reveals the beauty and power of the Alaskan landscape as seen through a boy's eyes.

McGehee's lyrical nonfiction story recounts the 1918–1919 winter spent on Alaska's Fox Island from the point of view of nine-year-old Rocky, son of the painter Rockwell Kent. Vivid scratchboard-style illustrations echo the rugged subject matter with enchantment as Rocky explores the wilderness and becomes accustomed to island life. Including a Common Core teacher's guide, this engaging book shows Alaska from a young boy's appreciative and imaginative point of view.

CLAUDIA MCGEHEE is a Pacific Northwest native and Midwest transplant. An award-winning author and illustrator of three natural history picture books, Claudia became captivated by Rockwell Kent and his family's story after happening upon his paintings.

ARROW TO ALASKA

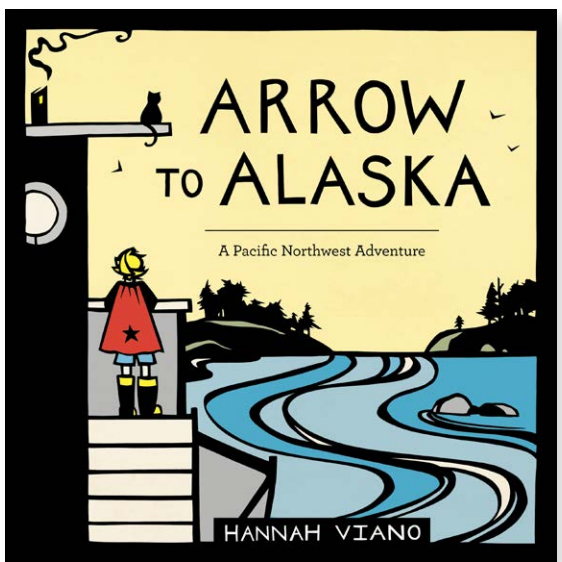

A Pacific Northwest Adventure

Hannah Viano

Like a Pacific Northwestern One Morning in Maine, this beautiful children's book paints a vivid picture of a child's life in Seattle and Alaska—magical in its own everyday way.

New from Hannah Viano, the author/illustrator of S is for Salmon, a PNBA best seller, comes the story of Arrow, a six-year-old boy who goes on an adventure to visit his grandfather in Alaska. Arrow starts off from the Ballard Locks in Seattle, aboard Aunt Kelly's salmon tender boat. After arriving at Grampy's quirky houseboat, Arrow and Grampy revel in each other's company in the great outdoors. The tale wraps up with a floatplane ride retracing Arrow's journey. Hannah Viano's striking papercut images capture whimsy and wonder, while her language sparkles.

A childhood spent on the rocky Maine coast introduced HANNAH VIANO to the wonders of life on and by the water. A decade spent as an outdoor educator from Ketchikan to Cape Horn added the joy of sharing her knowledge and sense of place with others. Viano now lives in Seattle, where she connects to Northwest nature and culture through public art projects, education, and site-specific installations. Her first book is S is for Salmon (see page 16).

ANCIENT PLACES

People and Landscape in the Emerging Northwest

Jack Nisbet

Jack Nisbet's The Collector was a PNBA best seller and book award winner (over 12,000 copies sold). Nisbet's new book reveals how the land in the Pacific Northwest shaped the people and how, in turn, the people shaped the land.

These are the genesis stories of a region. In Ancient Places, Jack Nisbet uncovers touchstones across the Pacific Northwest that reveal the symbiotic relationship of people and place in this corner of the world. From rural Oregon, where a controversy brewed over the provenance and ownership of a meteor, to the great floods 15,000 years ago that shaped what is now Washington, Oregon, and Idaho, this is a compelling collection of stories about the natural and human history of our region.

JACK NISBET is a historian, teacher, and author who focuses on the intersection of human history and natural history in the Pacific Northwest. He is the author of the highly regarded Sources of the River (see page 29) for which he was awarded the Murray Morgan Prize by the Washington State Historical Society.

THE SALISH SEA

Jewel of the Pacific Northwest

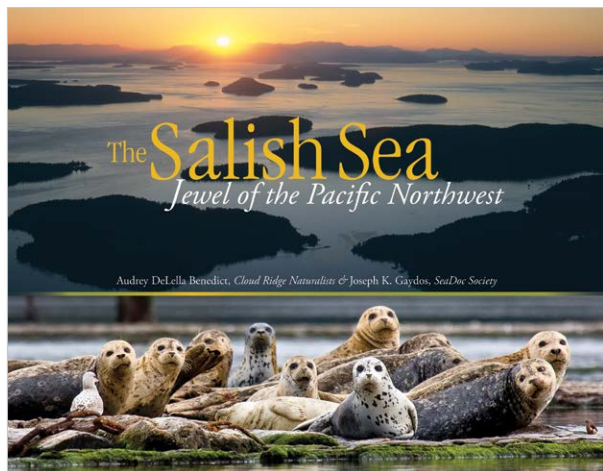

Audrey DeLella Benedict and Joseph K. Gaydos

From the coastal waters of Seattle's Puget Sound up to the Strait of Juan de Fuca and Canada's Georgia Strait, the Salish Sea is a wondrous, watery world revealed in this book of dramatic photographs and compelling stories.

Fashioned by the violent volcanism of the Pacific Rim of Fire, plate tectonics, and the sculptural magic wrought by Ice Age glaciers, the Salish Sea straddles the western border between Canada and the United States and is connected to the Pacific Ocean primarily through the Strait of Juan de Fuca. This fascinating visual journey through the Salish Sea combines a scientist's inquiring mind, beautiful photographs, and a lively narrative of fascinating stories, all of which impart a sense of connection with this intricate marine ecosystem and the life that it sustains.

As Chief Scientist for the SeaDoc Society, JOSEPH K. GAYDOS has been studying the fish and wildlife of the Salish Sea for over a decade. Gaydos lives on Orcas Island, WA.

AUDREY DELELLA BENEDICT is a biologist and a writer, and the founder and director of Cloud Ridge Naturalists, a nonprofit natural history educational organization now in its fourth decade. Audrey splits her time between the Colorado Front Range and her off-grid cottage on Frost Island in the San Juan Islands.

MOUNT ST. HELENS 35TH ANNIVERSARY EDITION

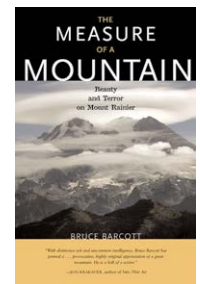

The Eruption and Recovery of a Volcano

Rob Carson

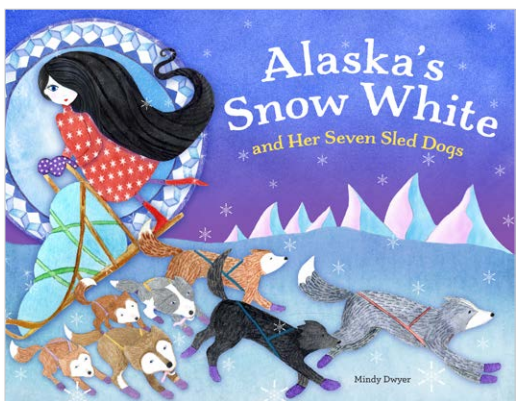

The 35th anniversary of the deadly volcanic eruption of Mount St. Helens is May 2015. With over 30,000 copies sold, this book documents that momentous event with an update on continued seismic and volcanic activities and recovery of the flora and fauna around the mountain.

The eruption of Mount St. Helens on May 18, 1980, was the most catastrophic and deadly volcanic event ever experienced in the United States. That event had the force of thousands of atom bombs and destroyed 234 square miles of forestland. This highly visual book tells the scientific and human story of that cataclysm and the remarkable recovery that has occurred. Some surprising facts are that the late winter of 1980 contributed to the survival of some hibernating animals; the larger mammals, including elk, brown bears, and cougars have all returned; and unaffected forests quickly spread to cover areas that were wiped out by lava flows.

ROB CARSON is a staff writer for the News Tribune in Tacoma, WA.

ALASKA'S SNOW WHITE AND HER SEVEN SLED DOGS

Mindy Dwyer

Mindy Dwyer, author/illustrator of best-selling children's books The Salmon Princess and Alaska's Sleeping Beauty, gives us a new fairy tale reimagined: Snow White is a musher in Alaska with seven trusty sled dogs.

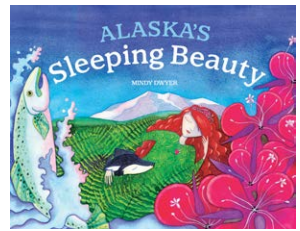

The evil Ice Queen, threatened by Snow White's beauty ("lips redder than a salmonberry") sends an assassin musher, then disguises herself as a trapper to deliver a constricting fur coat. Finally, she gets to Snow White as a friendly homesteader offering a peppermint drink that freezes our heroine. Thank goodness the Great Race means a handsome young musher finds Snow White—and warms her with love and a cozy fire. They mush happily ever after when the Ice Queen's rage makes her skate right through the ice to her demise. Children and adults alike will enjoy this Alaskan take on the classic Snow White fairy tale.

MINDY DWYER is the award-winning author and illustrator of several children's books such as The Salmon Princess and Alaska's Sleeping Beauty (see pages 14-16). She lives in Port Townsend, WA.
